

AFORE Solutions is seeking Senior and Lead Embedded Software Developers to join our dynamic Ottawa team. AFORE offers you an opportunity to fully utilize your skills on leading edge projects.

The requirements are:

Demonstrated experience in real time embedded software, preferably in protocol development

Strong C/C++/C# coding skills

Well organized and self-motivated

The duties are:

Direct supervision of a development team.

Co-ordinate the team's challenging technical assignments according to AFORE's Development Processes:

- Technical analysis of requirements including standards, customer specifications, design documents, implementation)
- Breakdown tasks into subtasks that can be assigned to individual developers
- Write high level and low level design documents
- Implementation
- Test and integrate feature with other system components
- Troubleshoot issues
- Track technical project issues with regular reporting

Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Engineering or Applied Science or its equivalent normally with a minimum of five to eight years of experience in the field of specialization from the graduation level.

AFORE Solutions is a leader in advanced cloud networking solutions providing a range of solutions including platforms, software and professional services with a commitment to the success of our customers and employees. Our team continuously works with new and exciting technologies.